Old Business:

1. The Board reviewed and signed a letter to CNP.
2. Lou mentioned that the Food Shelf had been without heat over the weekend and Landry Oil had already come to take a look at the problem.
3. The Board discussed projects to be brought up at town meeting for next year. They thought to ask around town first for bids on the landscaping of the common. They also discussed the Salt Shed which, the Heritage Commission researched, was moved to the current location in 1904. They decided to bring it up at meeting to see what the residents would like to do. Also, the Old Fire Department residing will be brought up.
4. The Board discussed the gravel that the Town contracted out with Roger Pelton.
5. The Board discussed the continued search for a minute taker for the Planning Board.

6. The Board discussed what went into the tax rate. The warrant articles for the Town along with not using the fund balance to offset taxes constituted the increase for the Town portion. The School portion was impacted by the loss of State aid funds.

New Business:
